I believe that the simplest legal arguments are often the most compelling.

Andrew Row is a litigator who focuses on complex commercial litigation and media and entertainment litigation. Originally from New Zealand, Andrew studied law at the University of Otago in Dunedin, New Zealand. He later obtained his LL.M. from Harvard Law School.

Before joining DWT, Andrew served as a law clerk to the Hon. Douglas P. Woodlock of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the Hon. Henry F. Floyd of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, and the Hon. Dame Susan Glazebrook of the Supreme Court of New Zealand.

Experience

Planet Aid v. Reveal from the Center for Investigative Reporting

Conducted research for the Center for Investigative Reporting's anti-SLAPP motion in a libel lawsuit following CIR's 18-month investigation into the alleged misuse of U.S. and foreign funding to farmers in Malawi, Africa. CIR's anti-SLAPP motion remains pending before the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (2018).
